Particulars were given in last week's calendar, and there is an aroused expectation of the coming event. The admission by ticket is unusual, but each 25-cent ticket represents a reserved seat. Seats will be limited in number, and tables will not be re-set. Toasts will follow the supper, and for the convenience of certain speakers the supper must begin at 6.30 promptly. Tickets may be had now of the hostesses, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Barnard, Mrs. Blunt, Miss Coleman, Miss Dean, Miss Ellis, Miss Erving, Mrs. F. H. Foster, Mrs. F. M. Foster, Mrs. Morse, Miss Neal, Mrs. Phelps. If any tickets remain unsold they can be obtained that evening, but this can not be promised. With thanks for past support, the Courteous Circle especially asks your generous patronage.

Friday

3.30 Foreign missionary meeting of the Women's Union. It will be the first of several meetings on "Missions in the Islands of the Pacific." This has been a region of wonderful triumphs and tragedies, sacrifices and joys, in the story of Missions. It suggests Bingham and Thurston in the Sandwich Islands, Paton in the New Hebrides, James Chalmers in New Guinea. We may hope for large missionary meetings to follow the story of such lives. Note the change of day—Friday instead of Thursday.

The Grand Master's Proclamation
Read by Noble Grand Ellen O. Eastman
Hymn ("Woodworth") . The Congregation

God of the living, in whose eyes
Unveiled Thy whole creation lies,
All souls are Thine ; we must not say
That those are dead who pass away.

Not spilt like water on the ground,
Not wrapped in dreamless sleep profound,
Not left to lie like fallen tree;
Not dead, but living unto Thee.

Thine are their thoughts, their works, their powers,
All Thine, and yet most truly ours;
For well we know, where'er they be,
Our dead are living unto Thee.

Prayer . Led by Chaplain Mary E. Anderson
Solo . . . . Miss Ruth Whitman
The Roll of the Dead, 1906-1907
Read by Secretary Sadie Hobbs

The Week beginning June 2, 1907

Hymn . . . . . The Congregation

He leadeth me; O blessed thought,
O words with heavenly comfort fraught,
Whate'er I do, Where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom,
By waters still, o'er troubled sea,
Still 'tis his hand that leadeth me.

Lord, I would clasp thy hand in mine,
Nor ever murmur nor repine;
Content, whatever lot I see,
Since 'tis my God that leadeth me.

Reading, "He giveth His beloved sleep"

Prayer . . . . . .
Hymn ("Manoah") . . The Congragation

Thro' Him, Who all our sickness felt,
Who all our sorrows bare,
Thro' Him, in Whom Thy fulness dwelt,
We lift to Thee our prayer.

Help us to help each other, Lord,
Each other's burdens bear;
Let each his friendly aid afford,
To soothe another's care.

Help us to build each other up,
Help us ourselves to prove;
Increase our faith, confirm our hope,
And perfect us in love.

Complete at length Thy work of grace,
And take us to Thy rest,
Among the saints who see Thy face,
To be for ever blest.

Benediction . . . . . .

Recitative and Aria - - - - - - - DUDLEY BUCK.

Behold! There shall be a day when the watchman upon the mountain-top shall cry aloud: Arise ye! Get ye up unto Mount Zion, unto the Lord your God! For thus saith the Lord: Fear ye not, O Israel, neither be thou still dismayed. Refrain thy voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears; for I the Lord am with thee and will save thee. I have loved thee. Why mournest thou in nightly watches? I have redeemed thee.

Hymn.—No. 462.

We march, we march to victory!
With the cross of the Lord before us,
With his loving eye looking down from [the sky,
And his holy arm spread o'er us.

We come in the might of the Lord of light
A joyful host to meet him;
And we put to flight the armies of night,
That the sons of the day may greet him.

The bands of the alien flee away,
And our chant goes up like thunder;
And the van of the Lord, in serried array;
Cleaves Satan's ranks asunder.

Our sword is the Spirit of God on high,
Our helmet is his salvation,
Our banner the Cross of Calvary,
Our watchword—The Incarnation.

Sermon. - - - - REV. GEORGE A. GORDON, D. D.

Hymn.—No. 489.

The Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain:
His blood-red banner streams afar;
Who follows in his train?
Who best can drink his cup of woe
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in his train.

The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave,
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on him to save.
Like him, with pardon on his tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong;
Who follows in his train?

A glorious band, the chosen few,
On whom the Spirit came,
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
And mocked the cross and flame.
They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane,
They bowed their necks, the death to feel;
Who follows in their train?

A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice
In robes of light arrayed.
They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train.

Mr. Chester Farmer was graduated from the Lowell Textile School and received the prize for the best course in chemistry. Mr. William H. Foster won a scholarship in the Art School of the Boston Art Museum. Miss Grace Jenkins was graduated from the State Normal Art School. There will be special music; but as this is the opening meeting of the year, large opportunity will be given to greet old friends and new.

Our motto for this year is, "And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it."

It is hoped that all the women of the church will make a special effort to be present, and a very cordial invitation is extended to all strangers who are to make their church home with us this year. Tea will be served during the afternoon.

The membership fee of 25 cents can be paid to the treasurer at this meeting. Will not those who are unable to attend our weekly meetings help us by name and money?

Dismissed, Oct. 20 — Mrs. Helena Lindsay Cook to the First Church, Exeter, N. H.

Colonel George Ripley united with this church by letter from the Kirk Street Church, Lowell, in 1870, and from that time was a leader in the counsels of the church. He was its generous financial supporter, and was relied upon as well for his good judgment, tact, fairness, and scrupulous truthfulness. For a number of years he was superintendent of the Sunday school, and they were years in which frequent improvements were introduced. His motto may well have been, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it heartily."

Mr. Frederick Moore was the trainer, while Mr. Carlton framed the general program.

On Friday night the Women's Union served supper for over a hundred of the younger members of the Sunday-school. Then came a little play and distribution of candy boxes from unusually pretty trees, and by eight o'clock the well-managed evening was over, and the crowd had melted away.

They will ask for a special collection next Sunday morning and will provide envelopes at that time for contributions. The cost of the supper is usually about $90.

On Jan. 23, we shall have a men's supper and meeting, addressed by Rev. Clarence E. Vincent, D. D., pastor of Immanuel-Walnut Church in Roxbury.

Late offerings in the church amounted to $10 (Dec. 8), for the Congregational Church Building Society; $13 (Dec. 22) for the Syrian children in Lawrence; $2.55 (Junior C. E. concert) for the Hindu orphan, Tae Rizoba. At the recent fair, the C. E. Society made $35 for its piano fund, and the Ministering Ten $17 for its relief work.

We chronicle with regret the death of gentle little Miss Lucy French, a steadfast member of our summer congregation. She was a granddaughter of Rev. Jonathan French, second pastor of this church, 1772-1809.

The annual supper of last Wednesday night verified predictions, and "was one of the most enjoyable in a long line" of such events. It is impossible yet to give a full report of business transacted at the annual meeting.

An interested company was at the church Friday night to meet our new organist, Mr. Frederick Moore, and to organize a chorus choir. It was a very gratifying meeting, and the outlook for the choir is bright.

Next Sunday morning Rev. Edward S. Tead, secretary of the Congregational Education Society, will speak here. This is one of our six great societies.
